Shortness of breath	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Other respiratory symptoms	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

3. Does someone you are in close contact with have COVID-19 (for example someone in your household or workplace)?

Yes No

4. Are you in close contact with a person who is sick with respiratory symptoms (for example fever, cough, or difficulty breathing) who has recently traveled outside of Canada?

Yes No

If you answered yes to these questions, you should seek clinical assessment for COVID-19 over the phone.

The majority of COVID-19 illnesses are mild. A clinician can help guide whether you will require further care or potential testing in person. Please use one of the following options:

- Contact your primary care provider (for example, family doctor). Let them know that you have used this self-assessment tool.
- Contact Telehealth Ontario at 1-866-797-0000 and speak with a registered nurse. Let them know that you have used this self-assessment tool.

If you start to experience worsening symptoms, please visit your local emergency department. Call before you go and let them know you have used this self-assessment tool.

If you answered no to these questions, it is unlikely that you have COVID-19.

You should:

- Continue to monitor your health for a full 14 days after your return to Ontario or have contact with someone who is ill. If you develop any new symptoms, please seek clinical assessment and testing for COVID-19.
- Learn more about self-monitoring; visit: <https://www.toronto.ca> and look for COVID-19 link for more information
